To Whom It May Concern:

This is to verify that the Accrediting Commission for Senior Colleges and Universities of the Western Association of Schools and Colleges has accredited New College of California from June 30, 1976 to March 26, 2008.

For programs that were in teach-out after March 26, accreditation was extended to June 30, 2008. These programs include: LEAPNOW, the BA in Humanities; the MAs in Humanities, Humanities and Leadership, Activism and Social Change, and Media Studies; the Teacher Credential Program; and the Science Institute.

The records are currently kept at New College of California and instructions on how to obtain them are on their website at www.newcollege.edu.

The Western Association of Schools and Colleges is one of six regional accrediting commissions and is recognized by the United States Department of Education and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation.
